

Dimensions of homogeneous self-similar/self-affine measures depend continuously on defining probability vectors

Meng WU
(University of Oulu)

Abstract

Given a homogeneous self-similar/self-affine IFS and a probability vector p , there is a unique associated self-similar/self-affine measure μ_p . We will present an elementary method to show that the dimension of μ_p is continuous as a function of p .